

WORD LIST

bowl

kom
I eat my soup from a bowl.

cooker

fornuis
There are two pans on the cooker.

dessert

nagerecht, toetje
She had ice cream for dessert.

flour

bloem
Flour is the main ingredient in bread.

frying pan

koekenpan
I cook my eggs in the frying pan and only on one side.

herbs

kruiden
You can add herbs to add flavour to your dish.

ingredient

ingrediënt
For my chocolate cake recipe I need these nine ingredients.

lamb

lam, lamsvlees
Tim had lamb chops for dinner.

leek

prei
I will chop the leek if you cut up the tomatoes.

main course

hoofdgerecht
My main course is salmon with vegetables.

minced meat

gehakt
The balls in the spaghetti were made of minced meat.

mixer

mixer
She used a mixer to stir the eggs and the milk with.

mushroom

champignon, paddenstoel
My favourite soup is made with mushrooms.

onion

ui
Why does chopping onions make you cry?

oven

oven
The pizza is baking in the oven.

pork

varkensvlees
He cooked a lot of pork sausages.

recipe

recept
She followed the recipe when she baked the cookies.

salt and pepper

zout en peper
The soup still needed a bit of salt and pepper.

soup

soep
All the vegetables were put in the soup.

spoonful

schepje
The recipe asked for a spoonful of sugar.

starter

voorgerecht
Mum chose a salad for a starter.

tomato

tomaat
I love fresh tomato with my spaghetti.

tuna

tonijn
Tuna is a fish that is great with lettuce and tomato.

whipped cream

slagroom
Strawberries with whipped cream make a lovely dessert.

to bake

bakken
He bakes lovely cakes.

to chop

hakken
The cook is chopping the onions.

to cook

koken
I have to cook dinner once a week.

to stir

roeren
You have to stir the eggs into the mixture.

Mix ... together in a bowl.

Meng ... in een kom.
Mix the ingredients for the cake together in a bowl.

Preheat the oven to ...

Verwarm de oven voor op ...
Preheat the oven to 200 degrees.

ecological

ecologisch, natuurlijk
Tropical rainforests have an ecological system.

eco-friendly

milieuvriendelijk
The earth is important so I use eco-friendly products.

foodscape

voedsellandschap
A foodscape is a picture of a landscape made of food.

